

LEGISLATIVE HANDBOOK

27TH ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

– SECOND SESSION –

2012

Tips for Successful Advocacy Visits

Be Prepared

- Choose only one or two topics for your advocacy visit.
- Define the issue and have the important facts.
- Decide beforehand what it is you want the legislator to know.
- Sketch out exactly what you want to say.
- Decide how you will answer any anticipated questions.

Be Brief

- Tell the legislator up front what you want to discuss.
- Be aware of the time allotted for your visit – most appointments are for 15 minutes.
- Stay on message. Keep it short, focused and on topic.
- Ask the legislator what his or her position is on the issue. If he or she isn't sure, ask when you can check back for an answer.

Be Real

- Be honest, courteous and positive.
- Tell your story – how will the issue impact your life or those you serve.
- Try to find points of agreement to help the legislator see your point of view.
- Do not promise anything you cannot deliver.
- If you cannot answer a question, offer to find out and send them the information.

Follow Up

- Send a thank you letter. Include any promised information.
- If they were not able to commit in person, contact them again to find out where they stand.
- Keep the relationship going with frequent contact-prepare for next year.

Top Ten Rules About Working With Legislators

- 1). Think about what you want to accomplish.
- 2). Know what you are talking about.
- 3). If you don't know, don't make it up, check it out and get back to them.
- 4). Ask for help, and their vote.
- 5). Don't shoot into the flock; target your efforts.
- 6). Show R*E*S*P*E*C*T – for them and you.
- 7). All Politics is Local.
- 8). Be yourself, but be positive.
- 9). Say it in THREE minutes.
- 10). Have fun.

Top Ten Mistakes

- 1). Whining, arguing, acting like a jerk.
- 2). Too Long.
- 3). Unorganized.
- 4). Bad Mouthing other legislators.
- 5). Bad Mouthing their family.
- 6). Telling a legislator what she did wrong.
- 7). Underestimating a legislator.
- 8). Not following up.
- 9). Not remembering the worm turns.
- 10). Not thanking those who help you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS!

What is the composition of the Legislature?

The Alaska Legislature is composed of two bodies: the House of Representatives and the Senate.

How does a bill become a law?

A bill becomes a law by going through an introduction, reading, referral, hearing and voting process known as the Legislative Process.

How do I find information about a bill if all I know is a general topic?

Our Legislative home page includes a link to the Bill Action and Status Inquiry System (BASIS). If you know the general topic of the bill, select subject summary from the box on the right hand side of the page and choose from a list of general topics. From there, you can read the short titles of bills to find the one that matches what you are looking for.

Is there a way of tracking bills?

You can track bills through the Bill Action and Status Inquiry System (BASIS). Information at this site includes, but is not limited to, bill histories, sponsor statements, committees of referral, and committee schedules. You can also access the full text of bills here.

When does the Legislative session convene? – adjourn?

The Legislative Session is 90 days. The 2nd Session convened on January 17, 2012 and adjourns April 15th. The Legislative session typically convenes on the second Monday in January. In the years that following a gubernatorial election, the legislature convenes on the third Monday in January unless that happens to fall on Martin Luther King Jr. Day, in which case it convenes on the Tuesday after.

How do I address a letter to my Legislator and where do I send it?
